certified printout from the register of births. You will need this for a marriage, for example. This is a copy of the birth register entry kept at the registry office or, in the case of electronically managed registers, a printout of it. In addition to the birth details (including time of birth and details of the parents), it also contains subsequent changes, such as through adoption or a change of name.

Multilingual birth certificate

You can use this abroad without a translation. It is valid in all countries that are party to the Convention of September 8, 1976 on the issue of multilingual extracts from civil status records (see Civil Status Law - Convention - No. 16: Convention on the issue of multilingual extracts from civil status records).
