Teaser	The Free State of Bavaria promotes the purchase of orchard trees. With the Bavarian Orchard Pact, nature conservation and agriculture go hand in hand. The Free State is thus protecting this centuries-old cultural landscape. The aim is to plant 1 million new trees by 2035.
Volltext	Purpose In Bavaria, orchards are a form of fruit cultivation that has developed over centuries and is of the utmost importance for the cultural landscape and biodiversity. The cultivation of more than 2,000 fruit varieties ensures a treasure trove of genetic, taste and healthy diversity and was therefore listed by UNESCO as Intangible Cultural Heritage in Germany in April 2021. The current orchard stock in Bavaria is to be preserved and additional orchard trees planted, as orchards characterize our beautiful cultural landscape, enrich our rural areas and bring us wonderful fruit from regional cultivation. Object Funding is provided for the purchase of orchard trees for the purpose of planting in Bavaria. Beneficiaries <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Municipalities</li> <li>• Associations with legal capacity</li> <li>• Associations with legal capacity</li> </ul> Eligible costs The gross purchase price of the orchard trees is eligible for funding. The purchase price must be evidenced by an invoice from a tree nursery issued to the grant recipient.

Type and amount

The gross purchase price of the orchard trees is eligible for funding. The maximum grant per tree is 45 euros.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

Voraussetzungen

The minimum and maximum number of orchard trees per funding application is 10 and 100 trees respectively.

The orchard trees must meet the following three quality requirements:

- The high-stem fruit tree species must have a trunk height of generally 180 cm, but at least 140 cm.
- The apple, pear and cherry high-stem fruit trees must be grafted onto a seedling rootstock. Other fruit trees can also be grafted onto vigorous, vegetatively propagated rootstocks.
- The trees must be bare-rooted trees or root ball plants. Container plants are excluded from funding.

The above quality requirements must be confirmed by the tree nursery on the invoice or on a separate document.

Kosten

none

Verfahrensablauf

Application

The application for funding must be submitted electronically to the responsible Office for Rural Development. The office that is responsible for the location where you wish to plant the orchard trees is responsible.

Under "On site", select the location where you would like to plant the orchard trees. Start the application via the "Online procedure" tab on the left-hand side.

The office will check the funding application and issue
