Teaser	Any tax consultant or tax agent who has entered into a public-law employment relationship as a temporary electoral official or a public-law official relationship must apply for the appointment of a representative.
Volltext	If a tax adviser or tax agent has entered into a public-law employment relationship as an elective civil servant for a fixed term or a public-law official relationship, the profession may not be exercised unless the assigned task is performed on an honorary basis. The competent Chamber of Tax Consultants may, upon request, appoint a representative or allow the person to exercise the profession themselves if this does not jeopardize compliance with general professional duties.
