Teaser	If you want to organize commercial shows of people on your business premises or make your business premises available for such events, you need a permit.
Volltext	According to § 33a of the Trade, Commerce and Industry Regulation Act (GewO), you require a permit if you wish to commercially organize shows of persons on your business premises or make your business premises available for such events. This does not apply to performances of a predominantly artistic, sporting, acrobatic or similar nature. The licensing requirement of § 33a GewO also applies in particular to striptease and table dance events. As a rule, the permit is subject to extensive conditions to ensure public safety and order and to maintain morality. The permit is independent of any other required restaurant license.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Valid identity card or passport • Certificate of good conduct • Extract from the Central Business Register • if applicable, lease agreement / rental agreement or proof of ownership of premises • if applicable, floor plans and site plans, building permit • Documents for the display of persons at registered companies or civil law partnerships for registered companies, extract from the commercial register or comparable registration documents from abroad (with German translation) for civil law companies, articles of association • in the case of a power of attorney: a written power
