In principle, a report cannot be withdrawn. Anyone is entitled to file a report, not just an injured party. Anonymous reports can only be made by non-personal means, as every witness is obliged to provide their personal details. A report against persons unknown is permissible. It is also possible to report yourself. There is no legal obligation for private individuals to report criminal offenses that have already been committed. Verfahrensablauf	The criminal complaint can be filed with a police authority, a public prosecutor's office or a local court. As the investigation is usually carried out by the police, it is advisable to file a complaint there to speed up the investigation. It can be made verbally or in writing. The verbal report is recorded. The police submit the report to the public prosecutor's office by order. Once the investigation has been completed, the public prosecutor's office decides whether charges will be brought against the accused or whether the case will be dropped.
