Teaser	If you wish to acquire and possess weapons and/or ammunition that require a permit, you must apply for a permit from the relevant weapons authority.
Volltext	You must always apply for a green firearms possession card if you wish to acquire a firearm requiring a permit (e.g. by purchasing it from a dealer) and cannot meet the special requirements for the issue of a yellow or red firearms possession card (see "Related topics"). If you meet all the application requirements, you will be issued a green firearms possession card and a purchase permit (a so-called preliminary entry) will be entered on it. If you already have a gun ownership card, further weapons can be entered there. The permit to purchase a weapon is issued for a period of one year, the permit to possess a weapon is usually issued for an unlimited period.

As a rule, sport shooters may only acquire two weapons within six months.

If, as a hunter, you have already acquired a long gun that requires a permit, you must report the acquisition within 14 days and, if you do not yet have a gun ownership card, apply for one to be issued. If you already have a gun ownership card, you must apply for the acquired weapon to be entered in the gun ownership card together with the notification of acquisition (see "Related topics").

It is recommended that you inform yourself in detail about the regulations of firearms law before applying.

To obtain a green firearms possession card, you must

- be of the appropriate age and
- prove your need,
- be reliable under firearms law and
- personal suitability,
- your expertise in handling weapons and ammunition and
- provide evidence of the safe storage of weapons and ammunition.

If you are under 25 years of age, you will be asked by the competent firearms authority to submit a specialist medical or specialist psychological report/certificate on your mental aptitude. You must pay for the certificate yourself and send the original by post to the relevant firearms authority.
