classes at the nearest school is necessary if the journey to school is longer than 2 km for pupils in grades 1 to 4 and longer than 3 km for pupils in grade 5 and above. For compulsory schools, the nearest school is usually the Sprengelschule, for other schools the school of the chosen type of school, training and subject that can be reached with the lowest transportation costs.

Exceptions : Pupils who are dependent on transportation due to a permanent disability are transported free of charge regardless of the distance. Transport may also be provided for school journeys of less than these mileage limits if the transport provider has checked that the journey to school is particularly difficult or particularly dangerous.
