Teaser	The register of associations is public. Anyone is permitted to inspect the register of associations kept by the register court and the submitted documents for information purposes.
Volltext	Anyone may inspect the register of associations and the documents submitted by the associations. It is not necessary to demonstrate a legitimate interest in inspecting them. This means that non-members can also find out about the factual and legal circumstances of registered associations (e. V.). In Bavaria, the management of the register of associations is concentrated at those local courts that are also responsible for managing the commercial register. The local court - register court - in whose district the registered association has its registered office has local jurisdiction. These are the following courts: • Amberg Local Court (for the local court districts of Amberg and Schwandorf) • Ansbach Local Court (for the districts of Ansbach and Weißenburg i.Bay.) • Aschaffenburg Local Court (for the local court districts of Aschaffenburg and Obernburg a.Main) • Augsburg Local Court (for the local court districts of Aichach, Augsburg, Dillingen a.d.Donau, Landsberg am Lech and Nördlingen)

Sachverhalt

The register and the documents submitted to the register can be inspected during office hours at the registry court's office.

In addition, the registers of associations kept electronically throughout Bavaria can also be viewed online via the joint register portal of the federal states. Further information on viewing the register online can be found under "Online procedure". The register portal is also used for nationwide announcements by the register courts.

You can find more information on associations with legal capacity in the brochures "Der eingetragene Verein" and "Vereinsrecht - Rund um den eingetragenen Verein (e. V.)" (see "Further links"), which you can download free of charge.
