or have passed an examination in accordance with earlier regulations which corresponds to the examination of expertise.

Depending on the type of chemicals you wish to dispense, the following examinations are available to prove your expertise in accordance with Section 11 ChemVerbotsV:

- the comprehensive examination of expertise for the supply of all hazardous substances and mixtures listed in Annex 2 of the ChemVerbotsV,
- the limited examination of expertise for the supply of certain goods, e.g. swimming pool chemicals, painting and varnishing supplies for DIY enthusiasts,
- the limited examination of expertise for biocidal products and plant protection products,
- the other restricted examination of competence for placing a maximum of two hazardous substances or mixtures on the market, e.g. methanol-containing fuel for model engines, selenium-containing burnishing agents.

The examination consists of a basic examination part for all examination forms (GFK I) and one or two additional parts according to the question complexes, GFK II and III of the common question catalog of the federal states (GFK).
