Teaser	The Free State of Bavaria provides grants for the care of mentally ill people by lay helpers in Bavaria.
Volltext	The purpose of the grant is to make it easier for mentally ill people to participate in normal life and to break down prejudices. Funding is provided for expenses incurred by lay helpers in connection with the care of mentally ill people. In principle, the associations of independent welfare organizations and their affiliated organizations are eligible to apply. A lump sum is granted per lay helper. The grant is awarded as fixed-amount funding within the framework of project funding. The flat-rate cost allowance is granted as a subsidy and amounts to up to 155 euros per lay helper per year.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	(e.g. by central association, social psychiatric service, established neurologist, district hospital, public health department) • Confirmation of qualification and efficiency of lay work
Voraussetzungen	Essential eligibility requirements • Lay helpers should belong to a group of at least four helpers and be involved in lay work on a voluntary basis, regularly and throughout the year.

Modul	Sachverhalt
	• Professional supervision of the lay helpers should be guaranteed. • For initial state funding, the eligibility requirements should have been met for around one year prior to the approval period.
