Teaser	In addition to the statutory benefits, the providers of certain private vocational schools receive an operating subsidy and - indirectly - school fee reimbursement with an additional subsidy (class subsidy) if they waive the charging of additional school fees.
Volltext	Purpose In order to make it easier for interested young people to choose these training and career paths, the Free State of Bavaria pays an additional voluntary subsidy to the providers of the above-mentioned types of schools over and above the statutory school funding. This voluntary subsidy is linked to the voluntary waiver by the provider of the direct collection of school fees from the pupils. With this funding, the Free State wants to motivate as many young people as possible to choose one of the professions that are particularly relevant to society in view of social and demographic change <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • geriatric nurse, • geriatric nursing assistant, • educator, • remedial teachers, • pediatric nurse, • curative education nurse, • curative education care assistant or • social care worker and nursing assistant. to decide. Object The providers <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • private vocational schools for geriatric care, geriatric care assistance, child care and social care,

- private specialized academies for social pedagogy,
- private specialized academies for curative education and
- private vocational schools for curative education care or curative education care assistance are legally entitled to operating cost subsidies within the framework of state school funding (Art. 41 and Art. 45 of the Bavarian School Funding Act [BaySchFG]) and - indirectly - to reimbursement of school fees (Art. 47 para. 3 to 5 BaySchFG).

In addition, the Free State of Bavaria pays the class subsidy (one of the two pillars of the care bonus) for private vocational schools in the aforementioned training occupations as a voluntary benefit without a statutory legal entitlement within the scope of the available budget funds (budget reservation). The school provider may then not demand any additional school fees from its students over and above the state funding.

The private vocational schools in the two geriatric care professions also receive the so-called school-related basic amount (the other of the two pillars of the care bonus).

Recipients of funding

The following are eligible to apply

- private vocational schools for geriatric care, geriatric care assistance, childcare and social care,
- private specialized academies for social pedagogy,
- private specialized academies for curative education and
- private vocational schools for curative education care or curative education care assistance.

Type and amount

This is a grant. The exact amount of the grant depends on the class size and the type of school (see announcement of the Bavarian State Ministry of
