| Teaser                     | Private school authorities that grant their pupils free learning materials for textbooks receive state subsidies.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Volltext                   | Purpose Grants are intended to support private sponsors of school expenses in the financing of textbooks. Object Private alternative schools are free to grant free learning materials. Provided that learning materials are granted free of charge in the same way as at public schools, they receive corresponding state funding. Type and amount Depending on the type of school, the state grants a lump sum of €12 or €26.67 per pupil and school year, or €18 or €40 for private elementary school, secondary schools and special schools. The grant calculation is based on the official number of pupils in the previous school year. Recipients of grants                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
