Teaser	The Free State of Bavaria strengthens rural communities as sustainable, attractive and vital living spaces by promoting holistic concepts for their future development.
Volltext	Purpose With community development, the Rural Development Administration supports the improvement of the quality of location and living conditions in the communities and thus strengthens rural areas as a whole. Successful and sustainable community development activates the community's own strengths, strengthens existing potential and involves citizens in participation processes. On the basis of an identified need for action in all villages of the municipality, the measures are determined according to urgency as well as the time and financial possibilities of the municipality and the Office for Rural Development. Object Funding is provided for the development of a holistic concept for the future development of a municipality. Recipients of funding
