Teaser	Private primary and secondary schools approved by the school authorities can receive special subsidies for the transportation of pupils with proven severe disabilities.
Volltext	Purpose The government grants are intended to support private sponsors. Object Private primary and secondary schools that are run by a legal entity under public or private law and operate on a non-profit basis are granted special subsidies for the transportation of pupils with severe disabilities. In accordance with the state budget, the school authority may exceptionally be granted a subsidy for the transportation of a pupil if, due to a severe disability evidenced by a severely disabled person's pass with the mark "G", "aG", "H" or "BI", transportation by a special motor vehicle on the way to school is absolutely necessary and the associated costs for the state are lower than for the necessary transportation of a pupil to another suitable school. A two-year waiting period applies (exception: church schools). Recipients of funding School authorities of private alternative schools are eligible to apply.
