Teaser	The government of the Upper Palatinate grants official recognition to organizations that run courses to restore the fitness to drive of drivers with alcohol or drug abuse problems.
Volltext	Applicants for a driving license must meet the physical and mental requirements for this (fitness to drive). If the driving license authority has doubts about the suitability of an applicant, the applicant is examined by an assessment body for driving suitability. If the suitability doubts have arisen due to alcohol or drug abuse, the assessment center can recommend a course to restore fitness to drive following the medical-psychological examination (MPU). These courses are run by providers who must be officially recognized for this purpose.
