examination passed. This must be done before the ADR training certificate expires. If the validity date has passed, initial training and testing must be completed.

ADR training certificates are extended for a further 5 years from the date of validity if the refresher training has been successfully completed within 12 months before the ADR training certificate expires.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

Voraussetzungen

You will only be admitted to the respective examination if you have attended the corresponding training course recognized by the IHK without any absences.

You will only be admitted to the examination for an advanced course if you have passed the examination for the basic course in addition to attending a recognized training course.

You will only be admitted to the refresher examination if you present a valid ADR training certificate in addition to attending a recognized training course.

Kosten

The examination fee is based on the applicable fee schedule of the relevant IHK.

Verfahrensablauf

First, you attend a training course lasting at least 2.5 days at a recognized training provider.

- As a rule, the training organizer will register you for the examination at the Chamber of Industry and Commerce (IHK). If not, register online or in writing with the IHK.
- The IHK conducts the examination. This usually takes place directly after the course at the organizer's premises.
- The examination is passed if the number of errors specified on the examination form has not been exceeded.

Once you have passed the examination, the IHK will issue you with the ADR training certificate and you can start working.
