Teaser	German nationals who hold several citizenships can renounce their German citizenship.
Volltext	It sometimes happens that multiple nationals have to or wish to give up their German citizenship, e.g. because they want to join the army or the civil service of another country (whose citizenship they also hold) or take up political office there. In this case, it is possible to renounce German citizenship. A certificate of renunciation is issued as proof of renunciation of German citizenship.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Application available from the competent authority or online procedure</li> <li>• Proof of possession of a foreign nationality (usually a national passport)</li> <li>• Approval from the German family court for applicants who are minors or adults under guardianship In the case of applicants who are minors or adults under guardianship, renunciation of German citizenship is only possible with the approval of the German family court (at the local court). You must apply for and complete the corresponding procedure at the court yourself.</li> <li>• Clearance certificate from the military replacement authority for persons subject to compulsory military service in accordance with Section 1 of the</li> </ul>

Modul	Sachverhalt
	Conscription Act (WPfIG) Persons subject to compulsory military service in accordance with § 1 WPfIG may only waive this requirement if the military replacement authorities (Bundeswehr Career Center) have no objections. This applies irrespective of the fact that compulsory military service has been suspended since 01.07.2011. The clearance certificate is therefore currently issued on a regular basis.

Hinweise	The renunciation of German citizenship becomes effective on the day the certificate of renunciation is issued, which is usually issued by the competent authority. Please note that you will be treated as a foreigner by German authorities from this date. Your German passport and/or identity card will be confiscated upon delivery. If you are an active civil servant, judge, soldier or otherwise employed under public law, you can only renounce your German citizenship if you have been permanently resident abroad for at least 10 years.

	The renunciation of German citizenship may also have an effect on an existing public employment relationship (civil servant relationship) or on current or future pension payments (e.g. retirement/pension payments, orphan's or widow's benefits). Please enquire with your employer or your benefits office before submitting your application as to whether and to what extent you will suffer any (financial) disadvantages as a result of giving up your German citizenship.
Rechtsbehelf	An appeal against a negative decision by the authority can be brought before the competent administrative court.
