Teaser	If you wish to conduct public auctions (forced pledge sales or distress sales), you must be publicly appointed by the competent authority.
Volltext	If you wish to conduct public auctions as a professional auctioneer or its employee in the cases provided for by law (e.g. Sections 383 (3), 966 (2), 1233 (2), 1235 (1) of the German Civil Code and Sections 373, 376 of the German Commercial Code), you require a public appointment to do so. The owner of the auctioned property has no influence on the price and the minimum bid and must therefore be able to rely on the auctioneer to protect his property interests in a particularly qualified manner. Appointment as a public auctioneer therefore requires proof of special expertise, which is demonstrated, for example, by sound specialist knowledge (legal and above-average specialist knowledge), extensive professional experience (spanning several years) and particular trustworthiness. The public appointment can either entitle the person to conduct public auctions in general or be limited to certain types of auctions (e.g. real estate, carpets, art). As a publicly appointed auctioneer, you are sworn to perform your duties conscientiously, impartially and free from instructions. The appointment is valid for the whole of Germany.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identity card or passport (copy) • Curriculum vitae • Certificates, further education etc. (copies) • Copy of the auctioneer's license according to § 34b para. 1 GewO (German Trade Regulation Act) • Proof of special expertise (e.g. list of auctions held to date according to type, location and time)

Verfahrensablauf

You apply for your public appointment and indicate whether you wish to be appointed for general or only certain types of auctions, i.e. for a specific field. In the latter case, the competent authority will check whether there is a need for public auctions in the desired field. The competent authority will check whether you meet the requirements based on the information you provide and the documents you submit. In order to verify your special expertise, the competent authority may obtain references, ask for documentation on the auctions you have conducted and obtain opinions from third parties or a specialist committee. If you meet the requirements for public appointment, you will be sworn in and receive a certificate of appointment and the notice of appointment.
