internal organization. You may sell pyrotechnic items in category F1 all year round. You may only sell pyrotechnic items in category F2 between December 29th and December 31st. If one of these days is a Sunday, you may start selling on December 28th. If a Sunday falls within this period when shops are open, sales are also permitted on this day. If a person wishes to purchase and set off Category F2 fireworks outside the above-mentioned time, he or she will need an exemption permit from the responsible district authority. The burning of pyrotechnic items is only permitted in Hamburg from 6 p.m. on December 31st to 1 a.m. on January 1st of the following year. In the vicinity of buildings or facilities that are particularly sensitive to fire, you may only set off fireworks at a sufficient distance and taking the wind direction into account (for rockets at least 200 m and for all other fireworks at least 50 m). You are not allowed to set off pyrotechnic items in the immediate vicinity of churches, hospitals, kindergartens and retirement homes, as well as thatched and half-timbered houses.
