Handlungsgrundlage	Hamburg Law on Keeping and Leading Dogs (Dog Law - Dog Act) § 9 Exemption from the obligation to leash
Teaser
Volltext	In Hamburg, dogs are generally required to be kept on a leash. Anyone who has passed the prescribed obedience test with the dog with a recognized expert (see links) or who has passed an equivalent test with the dog (responsible: specialist departments for consumer protection, trade and environment of the district offices) can be exempted from this. Exceptions for old and sick dogs are possible, provided that a corresponding certificate, in which a veterinary assessment of the dog's behavior is listed, can be presented. Dangerous dogs cannot be released.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	At the expert: ID card or passport with final confirmation of registration, the documents required for registration (pet ID, animal vaccination pass + chip number, proof of registration in the dog register, proof of an existing liability insurance), provided that the dog is to be registered at the same time. I. m Specialist Office for Consumer Protection, Trade and Environment of the District Offices: As above and, if applicable, proof that a recognized dog obedience test has been passed (e.g. dog driver license or companion dog test).
Voraussetzungen
Kosten	27 EUR (from the expert), 42 EUR per person. 84 EUR for groups (families), maximum 2 people required. Replacement exhibition 41 EUR.
