Teaser	To transport dangerous goods by road, you must have an ADR training certificate.
Volltext	To do this, you must first attend a training course of at least two and a half days from a recognized course organizer. You then have to pass an examination at the local Chamber of Commerce and Industry (IHK). The examination for dangerous goods drivers is usually carried out by the locally responsible Chamber of Industry and Commerce following the relevant training in the training organizer's premises. The training courses and thus also the exams are divided into a basic course, advanced tank training, advanced class 1, advanced class 7 and refresher training. Each training session ends with a The duration of the examination is: Initial training <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Basic course 45 minutes • Advanced tank course 45 minutes • Advanced course class 1 30 minutes • Advanced course class 7 30 minutes • 30 minute refresher training

Modul
Sachverhalt

The ADR training certificate is valid for five years from the date of passing the basic test. To extend the ADR training certificate for a further 5 years, a refresher training must be attended and the refresher test must be passed. This must be done before the ADR training certificate expires. If the validity date has passed, an initial training course and examination must be completed.

ADR training certificates are extended for a further 5 years from the validity date if the refresher training has been successfully completed within 12 months before the ADR training certificate expires.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Registration of the test participants usually through the training organizer
- Examination sheet
- Transcript

Voraussetzungen

You will only be admitted to the respective exam if you have attended the relevant IHK-recognized training course without absenteeism.

You will only be admitted to the examination for an advanced course if you have passed the examination for the basic course in addition to participating in a recognized training course.

You will only be admitted to the refresher exam if you present a valid ADR training certificate in addition to participating in a recognized training course.
