	applications (certificate of eligibility) and certifying the right to vote on forms to support a nomination.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	The certificate of eligibility form is available on the Internet in good time before the respective elections (see link Elections and referendums). You can also fill out the form on your computer. Enter your name, date of birth and full address. Print out the form and sign it yourself. You can obtain the voting rights certificate (support signature) form from the party you wish to support. The form must be signed personally. if applicable, identity card or foreign identification document
Voraussetzungen	You are eligible to vote in the European elections if you are a German citizen or a citizen of a Member State of the European Union and are at least eighteen years old. You are eligible to vote in the federal election if you have reached the age of eighteen on election day. You are eligible to vote in the state elections if, on election day, you are a German citizen, have reached the age of sixteen and have been living or habitually resident in Hamburg for at least three months. You are eligible to vote in the district assembly election if, on election day, you are a citizen of a member state of the European Union, have reached the age of sixteen and have been resident or habitually resident in Hamburg for at least three months. You are not eligible to stand for election if, as a result of a court ruling, you are not eligible to be elected or to hold public office on election day.
Kosten	There are no costs involved.
Verfahrensablauf	Your eligibility is recorded in the official register of residents. You can submit the completed form by post or in person to the Hamburg Service - Central Registration Office. The certificates (of eligibility/right to vote) are issued upon presentation of the form. There, your eligibility or right to vote will be confirmed - the form must then be picked up again.
Bearbeitungsdauer	The processing time depends on the individual case.
