Volltext	Recipients of citizen money and social allowance (SGB II) can receive this benefit as part of the education package. School children are paid a subsidy totaling EUR 174 per year for learning materials, EUR 116 at the beginning of the school year (usually on August 1st) and EUR 58 at the beginning of the second half of the school year (usually on February 1st). In addition to the school bag and sports equipment, personal school supplies also include writing, arithmetic and drawing materials such as fountain pens, crayons, compasses, set squares and erasers. Expenditures for consumables that have to be bought regularly, such as exercise books, pencils and ink, are to be covered from the citizens' allowance or social allowance.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	For children under seven and over 15 years of age: Application (see link Application for school supplies - educational package) and school certificate (issued by the school)
Voraussetzungen	Children under the age of 25 (or their parents) who receive benefits under SGB II (citizen's allowance / social benefit). Attendance at a general or vocational school, including pre-school no receipt of a training allowance
Kosten	Gebühr: Es fallen keine Kosten an
Verfahrensablauf	The benefits for school supplies are applied for at the job center. An additional application is not required for children from seven to 15 years of age . In these cases, the money will be transferred automatically. For children under the age of seven and over 15, an application with a school certificate must be submitted (see link Application for school supplies - education package). The receipts for the purchase of school materials are to be kept and presented on request.
