If you are interested in working in an academic or non-academic health profession abroad, you will need a Certificate of Good Standing.

Volltext

If you want to work in an academic or non-academic health profession abroad, you will usually need proof of your acquired qualifications (education certificate). You will also need a certificate of good standing. This confirms that you are entitled to practice your profession without restrictions. The certificate also shows that no professional or disciplinary measures have been taken against you.

You can obtain a certificate of clearance upon application from the locally responsible authority in the federal state in which you practice or last practiced
