Sachverhalt

- Your child has already completed his or her first year
- Your child has not yet completed his or her 14th year
- Your child is not yet enrolled in school and does not attend preschool or your child is already enrolled in school and does not attend full-day care
- You are employed or are completing vocational training or further education
- You receive Hartz IV
- You have immigrated to Germany and are attending a German language course or an integration course
- There are other social or educational needs that make care necessary

Kosten

Verfahrensablauf

- You independently search for a suitable childminder to look after your child.
- You submit your application together with the necessary documents to the responsible authority.
- If you and your child are registered as having your main residence in Hamburg, you can submit the application online. If this is not the case, you must submit the application in paper form.
- The responsible authority will examine your application and, if necessary, request any missing documents or information from you.
- If all requirements are met, care by the childminder you have chosen will be approved.
- The childminder receives the approved payments directly. They pay nothing or only a portion of the costs, the so-called parental contribution (also called "participation fee").
