Volltext	Training as an educator – technical school for social pedagogy The technical school for social pedagogy enables you to independently carry out educational, training and support tasks in the socio-pedagogical field. Educators work in child and youth welfare facilities (day care facilities, open child and youth work, residential groups, etc.), in schools and with adults who need assistance. The technical college education has a generalist structure and allows for the formation of a profile. The practical training is carried out in suitable socio-pedagogical institutions and in at least two different socio-pedagogical fields of work.
