Hinweise

In any case, please bring a valid identification document with you when picking up a lost item. If you want to authorize another person to collect the goods, please issue them a power of attorney. A copy of the principal's ID and a valid ID of the person picking you up are required. In the case of lost property such as plastic bags, linen bags, paper bags, bags, backpacks, scarves, gloves, glasses, umbrellas and clothing, we ask that you visit us personally, as these are "mass items" and cannot always be processed individually for the online lost property search . Purses, lost property with documents If there are personal documents in the found objects, we will write to you personally as the presumed owner. key In the case of lost keys, we ask you to visit us personally, as you must present us with a second key for proof of ownership. Individual documents These are forwarded to the issuing offices (other cities, consulates, banks, insurance companies, etc.) and are not available for collection at the central lost and found office. cell phones and other mobile devices If you lose your mobile phone or other mobile device, we need proof of ownership before handing it over, on which the serial number or IMEI number or SIM card number is listed (e.g. purchase contract, box or provider contract). Just having your personal PIN ready is not enough due to the mass of mobile devices. Cycles The search for lost or stolen bicycles is only possible if the make, color and frame number are known. Please note that the police will hand over the bikes to us at the earliest 10 weeks after they have been found. The police need this time to compare the bicycles found with the theft reports and, if necessary, to locate the owner. If you need a certificate for your insurance, please note that there is a fee of EUR 10 for this. Please bring the documents from the police with you, they contain all the relevant data for issuing the insurance certificate. Search for finds online Found items can be searched for online, see under Forms, Services & Links: Lost property office online.
