Teaser	Waste disposal from private households and thus also waste paper from private households is the responsibility of the respective public waste disposal authority. In Hamburg, the Hamburg city cleaning department is responsible for this as the public waste disposal agency.
Volltext	The disposal of waste and thus also of waste paper from private households is the task of the public waste disposal authorities. In the Free and Hanseatic City of Hamburg, the Hamburg city cleaning department is responsible for this. In addition to the blue waste paper bins, there are almost 2,300 public depot containers available at around 900 locations for the disposal of waste paper - many of them with an extra large opening. Out of consideration for possible residents, please note the drop-in times stated on the containers (weekdays from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.) and keep the pitches clean. The waste paper bin includes: (Window) envelopes, notes, calendars Newspapers, magazines, exercise books, books, prospectuses, catalogues cartons, boxes paper bags Wrapping paper corrugated cardboard cigarette boxes Paper/cardboard labels all packaging made of paper and cardboard (except cement sacks) The easiest way

Hinweise	Baskets, linen bags, collapsible boxes or discarded boxes are ideal for collecting waste paper in the home. These fit in many corners or even under wardrobes. As part of the pre-separation, space can be saved if you fold or tear your waste paper flat. You can then conveniently take it with you and dispose of it the next time you go shopping.
