Handlungsgrundlage	Section 26 Verification Ordinance (NachwV)
Teaser	If you dispose of waste or are involved in disposal processes for which you have to keep evidence and a register, you can apply to the responsible authority for an exemption from this obligation to provide evidence or register.
Volltext	The proof requirements and registration obligations under the Circular Economy Act (KrWG) aim to document and monitor the proper disposal of waste. With the verification documents and the registers, the companies that generate hazardous waste, as well as the companies involved in the disposal of the waste, demonstrate proper disposal both to each other and to the responsible authorities. If your company generates, collects, transports or disposes of hazardous waste, you are required to provide evidence. If your company trades or deals in hazardous waste, you must keep a register. If there is no fear that waste disposal will harm the public welfare, the responsible authority can grant you an exemption from the obligation to provide evidence and keep records. The exemption can be granted to you in whole or in part.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	Application and detailed justification as to why an exemption should be granted in the specific individual case.
Voraussetzungen	You can only receive the exemption if, despite the exemption, there is no fear of an impairment of the public welfare. In this context, the authority also takes into account that there is a particularly strong public interest in keeping records and registers as standardized as possible and therefore free of exceptions.
