Handlungsgrundlage	§ 9 paragraph 2 sentence 3 Personal Identity Card Act https://www.gesetze-im-internet.de/pauswg/_9.html
Teaser	If your ID card expires, you will need to apply for a new one if you are over 16 years old and do not have a valid passport document.
Volltext	In Germany, identification is required for persons over the age of 16. From the age of 16 you must therefore apply for a new identity card in good time before your old one expires. This applies if you are over 16 years old and do not have a valid passport document, i.e. passport, temporary passport. You can submit the application to your identity card authority at your main place of residence, which is usually any location for residents' affairs. Applications can be submitted to any other identity card authority outside of Hamburg if an important reason is given. In this case, a non-responsibility surcharge applies, which means that the costs of the issuance increase. The period of validity depends on your age: under 24 years: identity card is valid for 6 years. 24 years and older: ID card is valid for 10 years. It may happen that the new ID card cannot be issued within the remaining period of validity. In this case, it may also be necessary to apply for a temporary identity card for the transitional period. A provisional identity card is valid for a maximum of 3 months.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	Biometric passport photo: The photo must be up to date and meet the photo requirements for electronic ID cards. old identity card or passport if no passport or identity card is available: birth certificate, marriage certificate (marriage certificate) for children under the age of 16: if necessary, a declaration of consent from the parent who is not present and who has custody if there is only one legal guardian, proof of custody is also required

If you are registered in Hamburg with a secondary residence, the approval of the identity card authority at the place of your main residence is required for the issuance of the ID document. When applying, a non-responsibility surcharge applies, which means that the costs of the issuance increase.
