Teaser	Need a marriage certificate? You can get your marriage certificate from the registry office in the area in which the marriage took place. The registry office issues them from the marriage register.
Volltext	If you got married and need a new marriage certificate, you can apply for one at the registry office. To do this, please contact the registry office where you got married. The marriage certificate proves the marriage between you and your spouse. It contains the first and last names at the time of marriage and before, the place and date of birth of the spouses, the place and date of marriage and information on the religious community of the spouses. You can get the marriage certificate in the following forms: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Marriage Certificate • International Marriage Certificate • Certified register printout from the marriage register A certified printout from the marriage register reflects all the data that the registry office has entered in connection with your marriage. You will receive the certificate, including any subsequent certificates, as a printout from the electronic register. If the spouse's civil status data changes, for example due to a change of name or a divorce, the marriage entry is supplemented by a follow-up certificate. A new marriage certificate can
