Volltext	1. Offers in which, in particular, voluntary helpers take on the care of people in need of care with general or special care needs in groups or at home under nursing supervision (care offers). 2. Offers that serve to provide targeted relief and advisory support for caring relatives and comparable carers (offers to relieve carers). 3. Offers that serve to support those in need of care in coping with general or care-related requirements of everyday life or in the household, in particular with household management or with the independent organization of individually required assistance (offers to relieve everyday life). If you would like to offer support in everyday life, you need recognition under state law.
