Handlungsgrundlage	Section 27 of the Housing Allowance Act (WoGG) Change in housing allowance < https://www.gesetze-im-internet.de/wogg/_27.html >
Teaser	You can submit a change request while receiving housing benefit. You must notify us immediately of any changes that lead to a reduction.
Volltext	You can submit a new application for higher housing benefit as a subsidy towards your housing costs while you are still receiving housing benefit if <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Your overall income has decreased • has increased the number of household members to be considered, or • Your rent or home ownership charge has increased. These changes can, but do not necessarily have to, lead to an increase in housing benefit. You must submit the application for increased housing benefit to your local housing benefit authority. The conditions for this claim are checked. The increase in housing benefit takes place from the time the application is submitted. A retrospective increase in housing benefit is generally not possible.

	necessary. You are obliged to notify us immediately of any changes that could lead to a reduction in the housing benefit payment. After processing you will receive a notification.
Bearbeitungsdauer	The application will be decided immediately. The processing time depends, among other things, on the completeness of the information and the submission of the evidence required for processing the application. However, due to the large number of new applications for housing benefit expected in January 2023, it may take some time to process your application. Possibly longer processing times are not at your expense: for periods after receipt of the application, housing benefit can also be paid out retrospectively.
Frist	The increase in housing benefit takes place from the time the application is submitted. A retrospective increase in housing benefit is generally not possible.
