Handlungsgrundlage	Section 6 paragraph 4 Maintenance Advance Payments Act (UhVorschG) www.gesetze-im-internet.de/uhvorschg/__6.html
Teaser	You receive maintenance advance payments and there have been changes? Then you must report this to the relevant authority.
Volltext	While you are receiving maintenance advance payments, you must inform the responsible authority of any changes that are important for the existence and scope of your entitlement. These are usually changes to information that you have already declared when applying for maintenance advance payments. Examples of changes: • Your child no longer lives with you • They move. • They marry. • They move in with the other parent. • The other parent is paying child support again or wants to pay child support again. • The previously unknown whereabouts of the other parent will become known to you. • The other parent died. • The child died. • The child no longer attends school. • The income of a child who no longer attends school changes (because, for example, the amount of training allowance changes).
Erforderliche Unterlagen	Evidence of the respective changes, for example • Payroll • Proof of completion of school career • Proof of payment changes from the other parent (bank statement)
