Handlungsgrundlage	Section 18 of the State Treaty on Gambling (GlüStV) §§ 3, 9, 14 of the Hamburg Act on the Execution of the State Treaty on Gaming 2021 (HmbGlüStVAG)
Teaser	In order to hold a small lottery on the territory of the Free and Hanseatic City of Hamburg, you must apply for a permit.
Volltext	A permit is required for any event or brokerage of public games of chance in the area of the Free and Hanseatic City of Hamburg within the scope of the State Treaty on Gaming (GlüStV). The public sale of tickets for raffling off cash or non-cash prizes outside of folk festivals is a game of chance and is therefore fundamentally reserved for the state lottery companies (e.g. Lotto Hamburg, GKL). However, so that others, such as private individuals or clubs, can also generate income for good causes by organizing a raffle, there is the so-called "small lottery" in accordance with Section 18 of the State Treaty on Gambling. Under certain conditions, public lotteries (raffles for cash prizes) or public draws (raffles for prizes in kind or services of monetary value) can be approved as small lotteries.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	Information on the organizer and recipient of the net proceeds (name, address, e-mail, authorized representative) Information on cash and non-cash prizes and their approximate value Number of lots and lot price in euros Costs of the raffle for the organizer
Voraussetzungen	The lottery is only held on the territory of the Free and Hanseatic City of Hamburg. The playing capital must not exceed 40,000 euros. The playing capital is calculated from the number of tickets multiplied by the sales price of a ticket. At least 25% of the playing capital must be played in the form of lottery winnings. The net income must be used directly for charitable, church or charitable purposes.
Kosten	Granting permission to organize a small lottery is free
