Voraussetzungen

You are a national of a country outside the European Union (EU) or the European Economic Area (EEA). The person you are joining has German citizenship and normally resides in Germany. They belong to the group of other family members of a German citizen. There is a case of particular hardship, for example because your German family member is dependent on your help due to illness, disability or need for care. Please note: Unfavorable conditions in your home country do not constitute a hardship case. Your reunification serves to establish a family community with the German person (for example: you live in a shared apartment). Even if you live apart for work or training reasons, or if one person is being cared for in a nursing home, your reunification can be approved if there is regular contact with the German person that goes beyond simple visits. You can secure your livelihood and health insurance coverage for the duration of your stay without having to rely on public services. There is no interest in deporting you. Your stay does not endanger or impair the interests of the Federal Republic of Germany.
