representative permit.

Volltext

If you are the operator of a prostitution business and you want to run your prostitution business through a person appointed as your representative, you will need a representative permit. The representative permit will be issued to you as the operator for the person appointed as your representative. You can also run your prostitution business through several people appointed as your representatives. You must apply for a representative permit for each person appointed as your representative. The representative permit can be issued for a limited period. Your application for a representative permit will be rejected if the person appointed as your representative is unreliable.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

If applicable: Permission under Section 12 of the Prostitute Protection Act (ProstSchG) from the operator of the prostitution business First and last name of the person to be checked. Note 1: The person to be verified must complete the application process "Verification of the reliability of persons engaged in the prostitution industry". Note 2: An existing permit pursuant to Section 12 of the Prostitute Protection Act (ProstSchG) or an application pursuant to Section 12 of the Prostitute Protection Act (ProstSchG) must have a link to the application for a proxy permit.

Voraussetzungen

valid permit or corresponding application ID for an online application according to Section 12 of the Prostitute Protection Act (ProstSchG) for the operation of a prostitution business Note 1: From an administrative point of view, a simultaneous application for a permit under Section 12 of the Prostitute Protection Act (ProstSchG) and a deputy permit under Section 13 of the Prostitute Protection Act (ProstSchG) can be made. Note 2: The prerequisite for the granting of the deputy permit remains the granting of the permit according to Section 12 of the Prostitute Protection Act (ProstSchG) Minimum age of 18 years for the person designated as a substitute In order for the report to be processed, the person to be reported must agree to the background check. See the application process for: "Background check of people working in the prostitution industry"

Modul	Sachverhalt
Kosten	Depends on the respective administrative fee regulations of the state or on the fee regulations of the bodies responsible under state law.
Verfahrensablauf	You submit the application for permission to act as a representative to the responsible authority. The responsible body checks the documents and carries out a reliability check for the person designated as deputy. The cooperation of the person designated as deputy is required for this. If the test is positive, the responsible authority will grant permission for representation.
Bearbeitungsdauer	If the documents are complete, the application will be processed promptly
Frist	Before the prostitution business can be operated by a representative, you must have the appropriate permit. It is therefore necessary to submit an application in good time. If the prostitution business is no longer operated by the person appointed as a representative, you must immediately report this to the relevant authority.
weiterführende Informationen
Hinweise	In order for the report to be processed, the person to be reported must agree to the reliability check and cooperate (see information in the Requirements module).
