Teaser	Does your child want to play sports in a club or take part in a vacation camp? Does your child need learning support or financial help to finance the upcoming class trip? If you are not personally able to provide these things for your child, you can apply for benefits from the education and participation package.
Volltext	The legal entitlement to benefits includes the following benefits in detail: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Sports, culture and leisure: To enable children to take part in sports, games and cultural activities, €15 per month is available per child for contributions, fees and, if applicable, equipment.</li> <li>• Lunch at daycare center, school and after-school care: The participation of a child in lunch is free of charge.</li> <li>• School supplies: For school materials such as satchels, pens and exercise books, 130.00 euros are granted for the first half of the school year and 65.00 euros for the second half of the school year.</li> <li>• Learning support: Pupils are entitled to appropriate learning support insofar as this is suitable and additionally necessary to achieve the learning objectives that are essential under school law. This does not depend on whether there is a risk of promotion. The requirements include, in particular, that the school confirms the need and that there are no comparable offers.</li> <li>• Day trips and school trips: The actual costs for day</li> </ul>
