Teaser	Since March 1, 2007, local authorities have been able to set up environmental zones. Only those vehicles that have one of the "fine dust stickers" on the windshield (or have an exemption permit) shown on the entry sign are then allowed to enter.
Volltext	Low-emission vehicles can obtain a so-called fine dust sticker. You can obtain these from all registration authorities, technical monitoring organizations and all workshops that are authorized to carry out an emissions test. Exceptions The stickers in the colors red, yellow and green each correspond to a pollutant group: • Green sticker = pollutant group 4: • Yellow sticker = pollutant group 3: • Red sticker = pollutant group 2: • No sticker = pollutant group 1:
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Registration certificate part I or vehicle registration document
Voraussetzungen	The emission class codes of the vehicles according to No. 1 of the old vehicle registration certificate or No. 14.1 of the new registration certificate Part I (ZBI) are decisive for the issue of the stickers. Important: This is a service under municipal jurisdiction. You can therefore only go to a service center that is located in your place of residence.
Kosten	Gebühr: 5€
