Teaser	If your asylum application has been positively decided by the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees (BAMF), you will receive a written decision from the BAMF. The Migration Office will also receive this decision. You will then receive an invitation from the Migration Office to obtain a residence permit within 2 weeks at the latest. Please do not contact us if you have not yet received the invitation from us, as we will then not be able to process your request.
Volltext	If the BAMF has decided positively on your asylum application, the BAMF will state in the decision that you receive by post that you either: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • have been recognised as being entitled to asylum or • have been recognised as a refugee in accordance with the Geneva Refugee Convention, or • have been recognised as being entitled to subsidiary protection or • there are obstacles to deportation. If you still have questions or objections to the BAMF's decision, you must contact the BAMF directly. The contact details for this can be found on the decision you received from the BAMF, as well as the appeal instructions explaining how you can appeal against the decision if you do not agree with it (see under "i Where can I find out more?"). Based on the positive decision of the BAMF, you will receive a residence permit from the Migration Office.
