- Identity card or passport
- Child support decision
- Acknowledgement of paternity If you are not or were not married: Deed, order or judgment.
- Indemnification agreement If available.
- Proof of the time of separation If you are married but live permanently separated from your spouse because the continuation of the marital partnership is refused by one of the spouses. Example: Confirmation from your lawyer.
- (Reminder) letter If available: (Dunning) letters in connection with the assertion of child support claims.
- Evidence of the child's income from property and work If available: for example, income from interest, work, or educational remuneration of the child.

Voraussetzungen

In principle, children who meet the following requirements are eligible:

- The child has not yet reached the age of 18; and
- The child lives with only one parent in a joint household, and
- The child does not receive child support or alimony from the other parent, or
- The child receives child support payments that are less than the prevailing statutory child support advance rate.

If the child has reached the age of 12, the following rules apply:

- The child does not receive benefits for basic security under the Second Social Code (SGB II) from the Bremen Job Center. Or:
- The child receives benefits for basic security according to the Second Social Code (SGB II) from the Jobcenter Bremen and at the same time the single parent earns an income of at least €600.00 per month.
- Or: Due to the granting of the advance on maintenance payments, the child is no longer dependent on basic security benefits (cessation of need for assistance). This also applies if the single parent has an income of less than 600.00 € per month.

Children with foreign citizenship can also receive
