Volltext	The Magistrate of the City of Bremerhaven passed the following resolution on 04.05.1994: "The city waives, with revocation, the general right of first refusal to which it is entitled under § 24 of the Building Code and § 3 of the Measures Act to the Building Code for the entire municipal area with the exception of the formally designated redevelopment and reallocation areas." This resolution was published in the Nordsee-Zeitung on 18.05.1994 and has been in force since then with immediate effect. The land registry office in Bremerhaven has been informed. In principle, therefore, a certificate on the right of first refusal for submission to the land registry is no longer required.
