Find out how to apply for approval of an alternative school here.

Volltext

An approved alternative school may apply for recognition. Recognition of a private alternative school is accompanied by the right to issue certificates with the same effect and to hold examinations in accordance with the regulations generally applicable to public schools.

An application for recognition of a private alternative school may be submitted to the Senator for Children and Education, provided that the school offers the guarantee that it will permanently, i.e. as a rule for at least 3 years without interruption, meet the requirements imposed on corresponding public schools.
