Volltext	A declaration recognizing the maternity of a child can be recorded at any registry office, at youth welfare offices and before notaries. Recognition of maternity takes place before recognition of paternity. Recognition of maternity only applies in cases where the parentage of a child of unmarried parents is governed by the law of the country in which the child has its habitual residence or, alternatively, by the mother's home law. If the mother's or father's home country law prescribes recognition of maternity, this will be publicly notarized. The same rules apply as for paternity acknowledgement.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Proof of identity e.g. identity card or passport
Voraussetzungen	• The recognition must be publicly notarized. • Recognition of maternity can be submitted to any municipal office, youth welfare office or notary. • Recognition and consent are not subject to receipt and do not require acceptance by a specific registry office or other authority to be effective.

Sachverhalt

- Recognition of maternity only applies in cases where the parentage of a child of unmarried parents is governed by the law of the state in which the child has its habitual residence or, alternatively, by the mother's home law.

If the mother's or father's home country law requires a maternity acknowledgement, this will be publicly notarized. The same rules apply as for recognition of paternity.

- Recognition subject to a condition or time limit is invalid.
- Recognition also requires the child's consent if the mother is not entitled to parental custody.
- Persons with limited legal capacity can only acknowledge themselves, but require the consent of their legal representative. In the case of incapacitated persons, the legal representative can acknowledge with the approval of the family court; if the legal representative is a guardian, the approval of the guardianship court is required.
- For a legally incompetent child or a child who is not yet 14 years old, only the legal representative can consent to the acknowledgment.
- Acknowledgements or consents cannot be declared by an authorized person.

Kosten

Recognition of maternity is free of charge. Fees may apply for the declaration in lieu of an oath and for an interpreter.
